In Making a Scene, Kathy Weaver displays over 30 paintings, four embroideries, 18 sculptural figures, four sculptures and an installation with video all of which are part of her “Origin Story” world.

Making a Scene allows the viewer to peer into the artifacts and moments of this imaginary landscape. Her characters, the “Bulleheads” and the “Winged Ones,” struggle with the grey area between good and evil. Making a Scene is a saga of archetypal figures in conflict reflecting the real world.
